BUSINESS MEETING REPORTS FOR MARCH 2010

ALTDCM Report

I went with Stephanie to the January Quarterly on 8th and 9th in Vancouver, WA. The following agenda items were passed on to the Assembly agenda.

- 1) that we fund the area archivist to attend the National Archives Workshop annually.
- 2) area appointed trusted servants may speak to the minority opinion.
- 3) That the wwa72 grapevine and literature raises cap in motion 98.3 to $7500.
- 4) move that corrections literature budget be increased to $8320
- 5) we authorize an annual variable budget equal to 5% of the area approved yearly budget to be administered at the discretion of the finance committee.

I went to the accessibility quarterly on January 16th for Jane E in montesano and turned in a short report. I went too Massachusetts to visit on the 21st I attended some local step studys and speakers meetings in Andover and North Andover and will fly home on the second of Feb in time for our business meeting.

Thank you for letting me be of service.

Corrections Report

All meetings at the Minimum Security Unit of Monroe Correctional Complex are going well. The new hour and a half format means that some come early and leave early or come late and stay until the end, and about 10 steady attenders stay for the whole thing. Frank is a popular sponsor, as he was incarcerated for 20 years himself, and the guys look forward to the third Thursday of the month. I have hopes that one or two of them will follow in Frank's footsteps and bring meetings inside.

Coffee continues to be a problem, and the guys appreciate a little help in that area. Literature is being read and needs to be replenished about every three months. Some have asked for Bridges upon release, and I urge all to sign up as a Bridge. If you can find the time to write a few letters and take a friend to a meeting or two upon release, I promise you a lot of satisfaction. Those bridge forms are available online at <http://www.area72aa.org>.

If you'd like to see if Corrections work might be for you, see me, Dave Rood, Nels, Jane, Stephanie or Rick Park, and we can get you qualified to go in for a one time visit on a Tuesday or Thursday.

I continue to go to the Everett Work Release to make women's meetings available on Sunday nights. Another woman does Friday, but more help would be appreciated. I can provide you with contact info if you'd like to get qualified.

*Gratefully submitted,
Judy Stilson,

Treatment/Bridging the Gap report

Hey D-24-well Scot t(my new BTG person) and I went to the January 16th Treatment Quarterly in Port Townsend. The day was a bit more lively than previous quarterlies. Among the info & discussions talked about were that very soon Spanish speaking literature for BTG will be available, the new re-vamped DVD (previously available on VHS only) video HOPE is now available for $10.00 and I would like to buy it for my presentations. I filled out a form for a free year subscription for the Grapevine to distribute as I want and I also took a Treatment Kit that I am supposed to replace but feel that it should come w/my position? It was announced that there is a new BTG person for the prisons and to contact your corrections person for that info if needed. There was some more discussions about combining all quarterlies for a yearly inventory to help all positions better carry the message and be more effective. There was an announcement that there will be lots of great work shops at the Burien Little Assembly on March 13th so watch for flyers and participate!! The topic of the day that got everyone all worked up, and some people even practiced the old AA cliché :) "principle's before personalities" was the topic of adults Bridging the Gap of underage members. The comments ranged from "I'm tired of men chasing all the new girls" to "your setting yourself up for a lawsuit", to "you know there's sex offenders in AA don't you?", to what I thought was more rational of "our primary purpose is to carry the message", to " maybe bring 2 people to your underage bridge", to "contact the parents if possible", to " its working just fine so far the way it is!!". I suggested that you use the old trusty tool that guides AA....prudence!! I had 3 bridges, 2 were successful and 1 didn't go anywhere. I am still trying to set up a presentation at Alpine Treatment. Scott and I are also going to start contacting some mental health facilities, etc to offer presentations. Is it the districts opinion that Scott should be voted into his position (BTG) or am I alright to just bring him on board? I will be snowmobiling in West Yellowstone from Feb. 5th until the 14th...because, I'm clean and sober...THANKS AA!!! Were some lucky son of a BEEEP's!!

AA Carry the Message, Come and/or Pass It On

I'm opening my home up to women in A.A. I'd like to focus on different readings from the literature and pamphlets. Explore and stomp out myths and misperceptions of Alcoholics Anonymous. Uncover the truth and finally really have a concept of what it means to Carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous.

It starts this Monday at 9 am. Eventually I'd like a solid group to read the first 164 pages from the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Hope you had a great Holiday season, looking forward to new experiences in 2010.
