DRIVING DIRECTIONS

GPS INFO: 47.89667, -120.69889

Grouse Creek Group Site (WA)

From Seattle, the driving distance is approximately 125 miles with a driving time of just over two hours. You can get to the area by driving north on I-5 to Hwy 2, then going east. You can also drive east from Seattle across either I-90 or SR 520 to I-405 and take it north to Hwy 522 heading towards Monroe.

At Monroe, drive eastbound on Hwy 2 over Stevens Pass (approximately 15 miles) until you reach the Coles Corner junction between milepost 84 and 85.

At Coles Corner, turn north (left) on State Route 207 (Lake Wenatchee State Park)

Stay on 207, you will pass Parkside Gas & Grocery, and a place called “The Happy Clown Restaurant” no kidding.

Continuing over the river, and after the bridge the road forks, at the “Y” veer to the right which puts you on Chiwawa Loop Road. (The turnoff for The Cove Resort on Fish Lake is the left just after the entrance to the airport).

Further down Chiwawa Loop Road is Midway Village – continue for approximately ½ mile then turn left onto Chiwawa River Road Also shown on some maps as Meadow Creek Road Stay on this road for approximately 8 miles – don’t panic, soon you will see a sign for GROUSE CREEK CAMPGROUND (NOT GOOSE) – The campground is at the end of the short spur road behind the gate, alongside Grouse Creek.
